

Tales of Joy

www.talesofjoymusic.com

A band brought together by a love for passionate music, Tales of Joy aims to mix roots reggae with their wide variety of musical influences. Hailing from the Greater Danbury Area, ToJ began as a musical outlet for both Jason Joyal and Connor Taylor. After creating music long distance for over two years, Tales of Joy added the talented trio of Hector Ares, Matt Spencer, and Emmet Forester.

With a powerful new lineup, ToJ recorded and released their debut EP, Breathe Easy. A collection of catchy melodies, lively harmonies, and a fusion of their various influences, Breathe Easy allowed Tales of Joy to burst onto the Connecticut music scene.

In February 2017, Alec Iacovelli joined the group on percussion.

Tales of Joy will be releasing their first full length album in the Summer of 2017!

Check out their single, Mary Go Round, on Spotify, Apple Music, Tidal, and other streaming sites!
